Line Out Press Release – February 2004 – LOPR0003

Line Out Seeking New Acts

Line Out Records are currently looking for live musicians to work with from the Bucks and Berks area. Whether amateur bedroom musicians or professional recognised bands we are interested in hearing from you. We are looking for solo artists and bands who play various styles of electronic music, including (but not exclusively) synthpop, trance, darkwave, industrial, ambient, drum and bass. We are interested in the whole range from full size bands to computer driven acts, if you can put together some form of live act we want you to get in touch. If you think you would like to work with us please contact Bob on 01628 627289 or email bob@lineoutrecords.com

Upcoming

10th February - Reincarnationfish – The Betsey Trotwood, London.

Reincarnationfish's first London gig promises to be great fun, supporting New Skin, Skinflick and Freudstein.

18th February – Exmaark, Schadenfreude – Bar Soviet, Maidenhead

The return of the triumphant Exmaark in his second Line Out gig with support from Schadenfreude playing their first gig as a team having previously worked on solo projects "Drip Fed" and "Ocular Sinister"

Line Out Records is a small independent record label based in Maidenhead, Berkshire.
