Press Release

Voodoo Nature

The debut E.P. by Jetstream Lovers is being released on Line Out Records at the beginning of 2007.

Jetstream Lovers are headed up by ex-Goteki frontman Ross Tregenza. With Jetstream Lovers Ross brings us a matured, more sophisticated sound, a little older, a little wiser but still with the cheeky grin and a nose for a stomping chorus.

The band are off to a great start with Voodoo Nature, a nifty fusion of early rock and electro-indie, with a nod to 90's pop music in the form of a cover of Ace Of Bass' All That She Wants (in the band's own style, of course). A recurring theme of the EP is the perils of modern life – enjoying the reckless hedonism, but feeling lost and soulless when it's over. This darker undercurrent is balanced by some lighter tracks such as Vietnam and Vanessa, which rest in pure pop territory. Overall the album is an interesting blend of influences that ends up feeling like a 60s pop album made with modern technology.

The E.P. will be available from all the usual retail outlets, plus direct from the label' (www.onlineout.com) and at the band's gigs.

"Working with Ross and Jetstream Lovers has been great fun, it's always good to work with original musicians with their own vision. I was always a huge Goteki fan and am exceptionally happy to be involved in the next step of Ross' musical journey. If 'If I was hit by a meteor' doesn't make you want to wave your arms and shout, you're a bit wrong" - Bob Barker, Line Out Records

"This material has been exciting and revelatory to work on. I've tried to take a leftfield experimental approach to the songs, then fine tune them in pop structures, and I'm really happy with the results. In terms of the lyrics, I've found that writing about subjects that have some emotional resonance with me has given them a lot more soul. I hope people enjoy listening to the album as much as I did making it" - Ross Tregenza, Jetstream Lovers

1. Jetstream Lovers

JETSTREAM LOVERS take the fun-loving, inventive attitude of 60s/70s rock and infuse it with the irreverent aggression and style of modern indie-electro. Vocally, influences are drawn from a number of 60s-80s figures such as Bowie, Steve Strange, John Lennon, and Steve Marriott. The instrumentation is a blend of retro indie, reminiscent of The Small Faces or the Kinks, mixed with modern electro pioneers such as The Audio Bullies, Fischerspooner or Richard X.

The band consists of Ross Tregenza (Vocals, Lead Guitar), Edward Green (Rhythm Guitar), Elisha Bogle (Synths, Tape Loops), Alastair Power (Bass, Backing vocals), and Alex Parsons (Percussion).

Their love of rock n roll is modulated by their background in electro (the boys previously had a successful electro band called GOTEKI, and Ross plays guitar for Steve Strange's 80's pop band VISAGE).

2. Line Out Records

Born as the result of extensive experience in the music industry from promotion to album production, Line Out has proven expertise in sales, logistics, production, promotion and band management. Unlike many other record labels, Line Out's ethic is all about discovering innovative and cutting edge electronica, rock and alternative sounds, written not as commercial tracks which patronise you, the listener, but as music without restriction or compromise.

Starting in 2002, Line Out Records has established itself as one of the industry's fastest growing independent labels for those sounds that don't quite fit any genre but sit on the undefined frontiers between alternative rock, electro and experimental music. Working with a wide array of up and coming bands, the Line Out Records team are fiercely non conformist and will only use their wide knowledge base of expertise for those artists who are equally unafraid to challenge established musical boundaries and sounds.
